

beyond the blues
education & screening days

Understanding Mental Illness

What parents living with mental illness need to know about the role of genetics in psychiatric disorders – it's not as scary as you think!

Join Dr. Jehannine Austin on Thursday, October 9th for an engaging evening of information and discussion on the causes of mental illness

Jehannine Austin
Associate Professor, Psychiatry
Faculty of Medicine
UBC - BCMHARI

Ralph Fisher Auditorium -Richmond Hospital
Thursday, October 9th Doors Open 6:30 Seating is limited

Ralph Fisher Auditorium
Richmond Hospital
7000 Westminster Hwy

Free parking available in the gravel lot accessed from Westminster Hwy.

For more information:

Barb.fee@cmha.bc.ca

Psychiatric disorders are complex conditions that – in broad terms - arise as a result of genetic and environmental vulnerability factors acting together. Dr. Jehannine Austin's research focuses on improving outcomes for people with mental illness and their families by helping them to better understand the causes of mental illness.

Hosted by: Supporting Families with Parental Mental Illness and Addictions

Ministry of Children and Family
Development

Vancouver Coastal Health
Promoting wellness. Ensuring care.